—The Republican ticket for county officials was elected yesterday by majorities ranging from 250 to 900. The majorities will be about as follows: Farrand, 250; Thompson, 500; Hughes, 900; James 250.

—The entire Republican ticket was elected.

—Republicans elected the entire ticket in Cook county yesterday.

—Our dispatches from Whiteside state that the Republican county ticket was elected there.

—Miss Carrie Cullom, daughter of United States Senator Cullom, is visiting with Miss Carrie Eells, of this city.

—The fire alarm startled our people this windy afternoon, but fortunately it proved only a small blaze in a shed roof back of Keenan's restaurant.

—Mrs. Dennis Reagan and family desire that we return thanks to neighbors at Woosung for kindness rendered at their husband and father's sickness and funeral.

—“The Orvis Plow Company of Racine” is the style of a corporation under the laws of Wisconsin which has been formed to carry on business formerly of Dixon.

—The election canvass is now over. The people will not smoke as many cigars as they have during the past week but the flavor of those they do puff will be very much better in the future than it has been during the past few days.

—We have a communication from President Samuel Dysart, of the State of Agricultural Society, correcting some statements that we copied from the Sterling Gazette as to the management of its fairs. Mr. Dysart's explanation came too late for this paper.

—The Board of Supervisors at the hour we go to press with this paper are still canvassing the returns of the county and as we can not give the full vote we prefer not to attempt the election returns until we can give them official, which we shall be able to do to-morrow.

—In this paper we lay before our readers a full report in an intelligently condensed form, of the elections in the various states yesterday. The returns we give are intended to be unpartisan and as complete as can be had from the great mass of news that comes over the wires.

—The friends of W. M. Kennedy, by the council of the attending physicians, have advised his wife to proceed legally to place him in an asylum, and this afternoon, in accordance with a petition in that behalf, a special jury was called by Judge Farrand and after hearing the evidence adjudged Mr. Kennedy insane. We understand that he will be taken immediately to the asylum; probably at Elgin. Mrs. Kennedy has the sympathy of this entire community in this her great trouble, and we all hope that her husband may be again restored to her in full health. John H. Moore, we presume, will continue in charge of the Dixon Sun

—In our official report of the election returns we consolidate the three voting districts of Dixon, but for the benefit of our readers we give below the county ticket as polled in each separate precinct. The vote on the State ticket in the first stood Republican 185, Democratic 148, Prohibition 4. For county officers: Farran 143, Charters 189, Rathbun 6. Thompson 143, Laing 193. Woodyatt 249, Friel 72 Hughes 246, Graves 87. James 178, Ackert 149. Prohibition ticket 4.

Second District: State ticket, Republican 258, Democratic 139, Prohibition 7. County ticket: Farrand 209, Charters 173. Thompson 190, Laing 201. Woodyatt 300, Friel 83. Hughes 295, Graves 96. James 261, Ackert 130

Third District (North Dixon) Republican 170, Democratic 73, Prohibition Farrand 112, Charters 122, Rathbun 16. Thompson 99, Laing 148. Woodyatt 196, Friel 48. Hughes 222, Graves 25. James Ackert

—The young ladies missionary society of the Lutheran church are making extensive preparations to give the new and popular “Dairy Maids Festival,” Thursday and Friday evenings, Nov. 11 and 12. A complete program of music will be rendered each evening, in which will appear the “Dairy Maid's Chorus” by thirty young ladies, and Lullaby chorus and coronation scene by twenty children. Also music by the orchestra; concert to commence at 7:30 o'clock. Admission ten cents. After the concert all are invited to visit the creamery, “The home of the Ice Queen” and other attractions in the lower room.

List of letters remaining unclaimed in Dixon post office for week ending Oct. 30, 1886:

Alexander, Alfred C. Bridenbaugh, Mrs. Boeger, William Clawson, D. W. Davis, “Isaac” C. Ellsworth, G. Hooker, Frank E. Jessup, Martha Green, John S. Merrideth, C. H. McCullonde, Will Myer, Fannie McIntosh, F. Palmer, H. C. MARY A. CAMP, P. M. DEMENT, Asst.

While General Sherman was chatting the other day the conversation turned upon the religious element of the South during the war. The old General smiled grimly and said: “That reminds me of an interesting interview I had with a clergyman when I entered Memphis. I found business entirely suspended. The stores were closed, the public schools were shut up, and no churches were opened on Sunday. I stood it a few days, and then I issued a general order requiring all stores to be opened, the public schools to be resumed, and the usual religious exercises to be held in the churches on Sunday.

“The day after the order was promulgated I was waited upon at my headquarters by a clergyman, who announced himself as the Rev. M. —, of the Episcopal church of that city. He was up in the highest style of clerical garb, and his face wore that expression of a predetermined martyr. I said: ‘Sit down; I am very glad to see you. What do you want? What can I do for you?’ He answered: ‘General, I have seen your order about opening the churches on Sunday, and I am a good deal embarrassed to know how to obey it, or how to state my objections.’ I replied: ‘There is no embarrassment in obeying an order, and as to the objections, I don't care to hear them. You obey the order and never mind the objections.’ He replied: ‘But, General, you are aware that since our unhappy civil war commenced the ritual of the Episcopal church, South, has undergone a material change.’ ‘Has it,’ said I; ‘I have not noted it.’ He said: ‘We are now directed by our Church to pray for the Hon. Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederate States, and of course I am ecclesiastically compelled to obey the directions of the Church,’ and he looked at me with the expression of a martyr about to be taken to the stake and burned alive. I regarded him a moment and then said: ‘Oh, never mind; pray for Davis; pray for him just as hard as you can. He needs every prayer you can get off; but, my friend, I am dreadfully afraid praying won't do him any good; he has gone up.’ He looked curiously at me and then said: ‘Will you require me to pray for Abraham Lincoln as President of the United States?’ ‘By no means, my dear fellow,’ said I. ‘Let him alone. He don't need any prayers. Abraham Lincoln is just sure of salvation as any man who has ever died or ever will die.’

“Next Sunday morning it occurred to me I would go to this church of his and see how he got on. Services had just begun when I went in, but I took my seat where I could have a good view of him and he of me. He saw me before I got half way down the aisle. He went on with the service, and when he arrived at the point of conflict with the Episcopal Church South and the order of Sherman, with one eye on the prayer-book and the other eye on me, he prayed for all in authority over us,’ left out Davis, and let Lincoln alone.”—San Francisco Chronicle.

The Harvest Moon.

For the DIXON TELEGRAPH

The harvest moon rose, strangely red,
Above the clouds one summer night,
And o'er the leaden mists it sang,
And barked, a globe of fiery light.

Then from the clouds a handlike form
Passed darkly o'er the moon's red face.
It strove to clutch the glowing disk,
Then dropped through leagues of endless space.

Together on the grass we sat,
And gazed upon that curious sight;
“There is the hand of fate,” said one,
And one, “An imp rose from the night.

But to my heart there came the thought
Of grief upon a noble soul:
It passed o'er the radiant life,
But can not dim or quench the whole.

And also this: there is no grief
That can forever darkly last;
With patience wait; the little ploud
Will lose its hold, the shade go past.

The harvest moon, like that bright light,
Above the clouds rose high and higher;
Unshadowed in the sky it hung,
A glorious globe of molten fire.

A Young Woman's Idea.

Another Brooklynite with an idea is a young woman who lives in Smith street. She is 24, bright, sensible, industrious and nervy. About two years and a half ago her father died. He was an Englishman and had been in the butcher's line in a small way. A few hungry creditors gobbled the little shop and carted part of the furniture out of the house. Then the landlord turned out to be even more wolfish than the creditors. He took the rest of the furniture for a trifling arrears in rent and actually set the young woman and her 10-year-old sister into the street. Their mother had died several years before. Not a solitary person was there in Brooklyn or New York to whom the young woman could look for aid. She had no accomplishments and she was not strong enough physically to perform much hard manual labor. But she didn't sit down think it over. As there was no channel open to her she proceeded to create one.

Everybody has seen the hams that swing from hooks in front of meat shops. They are as typical of the butcher's trade as three gilded balls are of the pawnbroker's or a striped pole of the barber's. They look like the genuine, sugar-cured articles, but they are mere pretenses—dummies filled with sawdust. The Smith street young woman had made several of these for her father's shop. It occurred to her that she might sell some elsewhere. So she made a couple of the dummy hams. Good luck came at once. She sold the pair, and got orders for more. It took a good deal of hard work, but she got a kind of dummy ham trade started. Now two women besides herself are busy every day in the little back room of the Smith street house sewing bags of yellow cloth which are exact counterparts of those used for genuine hams. In the same room the energetic young woman's little sister and another little girl stuff the bags with sawdust from a bin in the corner, tie up the tops and paste labels on the bags just like those on real hams, giving the false presentation a very plausible exterior. From being set into the street without a penny in her pocket two and a half years ago, the butcher's daughter now has a comfortable home and a growing bank account, and she finds the demand for dummy hams so large that she and her assistants have their hands full all the time.—Brooklyn (N. Y.) Eagle.

HOW IT WAS EXPRESSED WITH THE BALLOT TUESDAY.

Some Surprises Developed as the Votes are Counted North and South.

Labor Makes Itself Felt in Several of the States—Virginia Sends a Few More Republican Congressmen
Than Usual.

Hewitt Gets the New York Mayoralty, and a Democrat Elected Appellate Judge—Chicago Socialists Surprise Themselves—The Cook County Elect—Meager Returns from Illinois—Ohio and Pennsylvania Republican—General Returns.

[NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The election in this state Tuesday was for judge of the court of appeals, congressmen and legislature, together with county officers. This city voted for mayor and other city officers, and the contest here was of increased interest from the fact that the workmen made an effort to get control of city affairs by the nomination of Henry George for mayor. The Democrats nominated A.

S. Hewitt and the Republicans Theodore Roosevelt. Election day was propitious for a good vote all over the state, yet there were a large number of stay-at-homes.

At midnight there
was only one election
district lacking, and the vote for mayor was: Hewitt, 90,296; George, 67,690; Roosevelt, 60,392; Wardwell, 574.

Shortly before midnight Henry George visited his headquarters on Eighth street, which at that late hour was still crowded by his friends and admirers. In response to a call for a speech, Mr. George said:

I am prouder than if I had been elected under the existing order of things. I congratulate you upon your victory. Under a fair vote I would have been elected. If, as it seems likely by the abuse of official power,
the run shops, the opposition of the police,
the city, state and national government, and a hostile press, I have been defeated, you have no reason to regret your work. I did not accept nor did you nominate me for the sake of office. Our purpose was to bring principles into politics. We have gained what we fought for—namely, the political power of labor. Never again will politicians sneer upon organized labor. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the devotion you have demonstrated by working night and day without pay and without hope of reward. If this is the beginning, what will the end be? Today's struggle is the Bunker hill of the political struggle of labor for its rights. You have kindled a fire that will never die until labor has achieved the emancipation of the men and women who toil. Again I thank you and trust you will continue in the good work so nobly begun.
[Cheers.]

Mr. Hewitt dropped in at the New Amsterdam club late at night and was at once surrounded by friends and overwhelmed with congratulations. To a United Press reporter he said: "I do not regard my election as a personal victory, but as the triumph of the good sense of the people over the theories of wild visionaries. The result demonstrates that the educated people can be relied upon to give a righteous verdict when a question involving their best interests is submitted to their judgment. It seems to me a pity that Mr. Roosevelt, for whom I have a high esteem, was drawn into the race. The issue was Socialism, represented by Mr. George, against the principles of democratic government, represented by myself. It is the fashion for successful candidates to outline their intentions and season them with promises, but I prefer to be judged by what I do. This I will say, however, that if Mr.
Roosevelt has any reforms at heart, or if Mr.
George can make any suggestions tending to ameliorate the condition of the workman,
I shall be happy to give them my serious attention."

The following have been elected congressmen in the districts named: First, Perry Belmont, Dem.; Second, Felix Campbell, Dem.; Third, S. V. White, Rep.; Fourth, P. P.
Mahoney, Dem.; Fifth, A. M. Bliss, Dem.;
Sixth, A. J. Cummings, Dem.; Seventh,
Lloyd Bryce, Dem.; Eighth, T. J. Campbell,
Dem.; Ninth, S. S. Cox, Dem.; Tenth, F. B.
Spenola, Dem.; Eleventh, F. A. Merriman, Dem.; Twelfth, W. B. Cochran, Dem.; Thirteenth, A. P. Fitch, Rep.; Fourteenth,
W. G. Stahlacker, Dem.; Fifteenth, Henry
Bacon, Dem.; (probably); Sixteenth, J. H.
Ketchum, Rep.; Seventeenth, S. T. Hopkins,
Rep.; Eighteenth, H. G. Burleigh, Rep.; Nineteenth, N. Kane, Dem.; (gain, probably);
Twentieth, George West, Rep.; Twenty-first,
John M. Moffatt, Rep.; Twenty-second, M.
X. Parker, Rep.; Twenty-third, J. Sherman,
Rep.; (gain); Twenty-fourth, David Wieber,
Rep.; (gain); Twenty-fifth, Frank Hiseock,
Rep.; Twenty-sixth, Milton Delano, Rep.;
Twenty-seventh, N. M. Nutting, Rep.;
Twenty-eighth, T. S. Flood, Rep.; (gain);
Twenty-ninth, Ira Davenport, Rep.; Thirtieth, C. S. Baker, Rep.; Thirty-first, J. G.
Sawyer, Rep.; Thirty-second, J. M. Farquahar, Rep.; Thirty-third, J. B. Weber, Rep.; Thirty-fourth, W. G. Laidlaw, Rep.

For judge of the court of appeals, in 733 districts outside of New York and Kings county, Daniels had 80,693; Peckham, 59,813.
The returns from 10 election districts missing, the vote for judge of the court of appeals in New York city stands: Daniels, 77,567; Peckham, 129,931; Groo, 719.

In 185 election districts outside of New York and Kings counties, Daniels has 39,417.
Peckham, 110,504. Basing an estimate upon the returns from New York and Kings counties and from about half the districts in the state outside of those counties, Peckham's majority will be about the same as that given for Hill last year.

Slow Returns in Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—Figures come in slowly, but from returns received, Beaver, Rep., has been elected governor. His plurality in this city alone will be about 25,000.
The other candidates on the state ticket are well up with the head.

In the First district Bingham, Rep., is elected to congress; Second, O'Neill, Rep.,

Third, Randall, Dem.; Fourth, Kelley, Rep.;
Fifth, Harmer, Rep.; Eighth, Ermentrout, Dem.; Ninth, Helstand, Rep.; Tenth, Rowden, Dem.; Eleventh, Buckland, Dem.; Fourteenth, Bound, Rep.; Nineteenth, Maish, Dem.; Twenty-second, Dalzell, Rep.; Twenty-third, Bayne, Rep.

Chairman Cooper, of the Republican state committee, claims 40,000 plurality for Gen.
Beaver in the state.

WILKESBARRE, Nov. 3.—A heavy vote was polled in Luzerne county. Osborn, Rep., for congressman-at-large, runs away ahead of his ticket. With probably the exception of recorder of deeds, the ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 400 to 1,300. Indications are that out of five legislative districts four Democrats will be elected, a gain of two. Two years ago when the Irish-American element went for Blaine, the Republicans carried the county by 1,200 majority.

The Irish voted the solid Democratic ticket Tuesday.

The Democratic state committee concede the election of Beaver for governor by a large majority.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 3.—One hundred and twenty-three of the 140 districts in this city show a net Republican loss of 991 from 1885.
Robb, Rep., for judge, is probably defeated by a small majority. Chairman Brennan, of the Democratic county committee, concedes Beaver's election by 8,000 in the state.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 3.—Almost complete returns up to 2:45 a. m., Wednesday, make Beaver's majority between 30,000 and 40,000.
The legislature is largely Republican.

New Jersey.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 3.—Returns indicate Greene's, Dem., election for governor, with legislature in doubt.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 3.—Union county gives Green, Dem., for governor about 20, 000 majority. Middlesex county gives Green 500 majority, and Kean, Rep., for congress, 150 majority. Cape May county gives Howey, Rep., for governor, 1,024; Green, 940. The majority of Robert S. Green, Dem., for governor, is estimated at from 3,000 to 5,000.

The indications are that the Republicans will retain control of both branches of the legislature.

Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 3.—There is no
election in the Second Rhode Island district.
The vote was: Bradley, Dem., 5,426; Elixon,
Rep., 4,249; Chase, Pro., 852; Scott, 131.

HOW THE GREAT WEST VOTED.

Chicago Socialists Surprise Themselves—
Illinois Returns.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—At midnight Tuesday
the indications were that the entire Republican county ticket was elected with the exception of George R. Davis for treasurer, who ran very far behind his ticket. Superior Court Judges Hawes and Anthony, Republicans, and Jamieson and Altgeld,
Dems.; County Judge Prendergast, Dem., and Probate Judge Knickerbocker, Rep., all of them endorsed by the Socialists, are elected. Three Republican judges and two Democratic judges, not endorsed by the Socialists, were defeated. The Socialist vote amounted to 20,000 and surprised even the Socialists themselves.

Congressmen Dunham, Rep.; Lawler, Dem.; Mason, Rep., and Adams, Rep., are elected in the First, Second, Third and Fourth congressional districts.

The Republicans claim a majority in the state for treasurer of 20,000 to 25,000. Lawler is elected in the Second congressional district by about 400 majority over Gleason, the Labor candidate. The result in the Tenth, Eleventh, Thirteenth, and Eighteenth is in doubt. The Republicans gain a congressman in the Third district. No returns are yet received from the other congressional districts or from the legislative ticket. The Socialists claim that they have elected three members of the legislature from this city.

Later returns show the election of four United Labor members of the legislature from this city, which, it is claimed, gives them the balance of power in the legislature.

The following summary of the returns is received from Springfield: The Republicans claim the state ticket by about 18,000 plurality, and the chances seem to favor a Republican legislature. For congress Sdringer is elected by a decreased majority. The race between Thomas, Rep., and Hartzell, Dem., in the Twentieth district, is close, with the probability of Thomas "getting there." Nece is also probably elected, and Springer undoubtedly so. Probabilities as regards others are that Cannon and Worthington are elected.

A late report from the Second district (this city), in which Lawler, Dem., Gleason, Labor, and Woodman, Rep., were the candidates, indicates that Lawler will possibly be defeated. With twenty-seven precincts to hear from Gleason was two votes ahead.

Republican Gains in Ohio.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 3.—One hundred and forty precincts out of 212 in Hamilton county show a majority for Robinson, Rep., secretary of state, of 4,606. Butterworth, Rep., for congress, First district, 2,500 majority; Brown, Rep., Second district, 1,600 majority.

Eighty-two precincts in the first congressional district give Butterworth, Rep., a majority of 2,182. In the Second district, Brown, Rep., has a majority of 1,698 in seventy-three precincts. A total of fifty-seven precincts in both districts to be heard from.

In the state 424 voting places show Republican gain of 3,230.

Incomplete returns from the state indicate that the following candidates for congress are elected: First district, Ben Butterworth, Rep.; Second, C. H. Brown, Rep.; Third, E. S.
Williams, Rep.; Fourth, S. S. Yoder, Dem.;
Fifth, George E. Seney, Dem.; Sixth, M. M.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 3.—In ten wards
Foran, Dem., for congress, gains 1,064 votes.
TOLEDO, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Romeis, Rep., for congress has made heavy gains on a full vote
and is undoubtedly elected.

Michigan Claimed by Both Parties.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 3.—Returns come in slowly, and it will be late before the result is known. Eighty-two precincts outside of Wayne county give Yapple, Dem., for governor, a net gain of 210 as compared with Be-ggle's vote in 1884. The vote will be much lighter than anticipated. The present rate of gain carried throughout the state would give Yapple a vote just 300 short of carrying the state. Wayne county is showing a larger proportion of gain, and not a word has been heard from the upper peninsula, which is expected to show large Democratic gains. Both sides are claiming the state. Chipman, Dem., for congress, has been elected by 1,500. Salisbury, Dem., is running ahead in the Second,

and will be elected. In the Third O'Donnell, Rep., is running behind the ticket, but will probably be elected. Burrows, Rep., will also be elected. Ford, Dem., in the Fifth; Fedeira, Dem., in the Sixth; Ubeking,
Dem., in the Seventh, are sure. Tarsney, Dem., in the Eighth, shows gains, and is probably elected. In the Ninth Mason, Dem., is probably running far enough ahead to defeat Cutcheon, Rep., though it is not certain.
The Eleventh, despite gains in the upper peninsula, will probably go Republican, electing Moffatt. The Democrats are gaining in the legislature, though figures can not be given. The state ticket will be divided.

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 3.—One hundred and thirty precincts give C. W. Luce, Rep., 10,968, and G. L. Yapple, Dem., 18,611, votes for governorship.

LATER.—Fifty-three precincts Give Luce,
Republican, 6,850, and Yapple, Fusion, 6,179.
These precincts are well scattered, and it would seem to indicate a Republican victory.
It is impossible to speak definitely of the vote for congressmen or for the legislature. For governor a continuation of the gains so far reported would give a Republican plurality of between 5,000 and 6,000.

Mighty Close in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 3.—At 1 a. m.
Wednesday the result in Indiana was in doubt, only 120 precincts out of 1,768 having been heard from. These show a slight Republican gain, but the ratio is not sufficient to overcome the Democratic plurality of two years ago. The election of the state ticket and legislature is claimed at both committee headquarters, although one member of the Democratic executive committee concedes the election of the state ticket to the Republicans. Nothing decisive can be learned as yet, as the ticket is long and badly scratched, and counting is very slow. In many counties only the official canvass of votes will determine the result. The present congressional delegation is nine Democrats and four Republicans. The latter will gain two congressmen almost certainly; in fact the election of Hovey, in the First, and White, in the Twelfth, is conceded by the Democrats.
Republicans claim that two other districts will also be wrested from their adversaries.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Nov. 3.—Howard, for congress, has carried the county by more than the usual Democratic majority. His information is that he is elected over Marsh, Rep.

LATER.—One hundred precincts give Robertson 11,166; Nelson, 9,887. The same precincts in 1884 gave Blaine 11,589; Cleveland, 10,698. Republican loss, 414; Democratic loss, 811. Net Republican gain, 397. It is now said that Hovey is defeated in the First congressional district.

The Minnesota Probabilities.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 3.—The election
Tuesday was the liveliest ever known in the state, an unusually large vote was polled.
Returns show large Democratic gains in all parts of the state, and it is generally conceded that Ames, the Democratic candidate, is elected, with the entire Democratic state ticket, which is as follows: A. A. Ames, governor; John Frank, lieutenant governor;
Luther Jaeger, secretary of state; G. A.
Lundburg, state auditor; Henry Poehler,
state treasurer; J. N. Ives, attorney general.
Edmund E. Rice, candidate for congress in the Fourth district, Judge McDonald in the Third, and Judge Wilson in the First, all Democrats, are elected. Knute Nelson and John Lind, in the Fifth and First congressional districts, are the Republican congressmen elected. There are many country towns from which returns are coming in very slowly. Bets of $1,000 to $100 on Ames are freely offered, with no takers.

LATER.—At 1 a. m. Wednesday from 101
precincts gave McGill, Rep., for governor, 8,301; Ames, Dem., 7,603. Same places gave Blaine 8,152; Cleveland, 4,941. At this ratio
McGill's majority in the state will be 7,000.
The Pioneer press claims that the state has gone Republican by 15,000 majority, and all Republican congressmen are elected with the possible exception of Herbert, in the Third district.

Meager Returns from Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 3.—Thirty-four towns and cities show a net Republican gain of 391. In seven precincts in this city there is a total vote as follows: For governor, J.
M. Rusk, Rep., 1,238; G. A. Woodward,
Dem., 1,042. The indications are that Henry Smith, the labor candidate for congress, is elected in the Fourth district.

LATER.—At midnight Tuesday it was conceded that the entire state Republican ticket has been elected by a handsome majority, with Governor Rusk leading. The plurality will probably exceed 20,000. The legislature is Republican with a reduced majority on joint ballot. The labor party has elected from ten to twelve members of the legislature, and their leaders claim they have enough to hold the balance of power and thus control the selection of a United States senator. The congressional delegation will be:
First district, L. B. Caswell, Rep.; Second,
Richard Guenther, Rep., a Republican gain;
Third, R. M. LaFollette, Rep.; Fourth,
Henry Smith, Labor, a Republican loss;
Fifth, Thomas Hudd, Dem.; Sixth, C. B.
Clark, Rep.; Seventh, O. B. Thomas, Rep.;
Eighth, Wi T. Price, Rep.; Ninth, Isaac
Stephenson, Rep.

Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 3.—The result in the city is in doubt. Warner, Rep., for congress, has 1,243 majority over Phillips in 9 out of 24 city precincts. He will require 2,500 majority in the city in order to be re-elected from the district.

ATCHISON, Kan., Nov. 3.—There has been so much scratching in this county that it will be impossible to learn anything definite for some time. Governor Martin, who is here, has dispatches which claim the state by 30,000.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 3.—All the counties in the state outside of San Francisco county, partial returns give the Republicans a majority. Unless the majority for Bartlett, Dem., for governor, proves to be much larger in San Fran-

For Instant Use

As a reliable remedy, in cases of Croup, Whooping Cough, or sudden Colds,
and for the prompt relief and cure of throat and lung diseases, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa, writes: "I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy for home use. I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults." John H. Stoddard, Petersburg, Va., writes: "I have never found a medicine equal to

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral

for the prompt relief of throat and lung diseases peculiar to children. I consider it an absolute cure for all such affections,
and am never without it in the house."
Mrs. L. E. Herman, 187 Mercer st., Jersey
City, writes: "I have always found Ayer's Cherry Pectoral useful in my family." B. T. Johnson, Mt. Savage, Md., writes: "For the speedy cure of sudden Colds, and for the relief of children afflicted with Croup, I have never found anything equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
It is the most potent of all the remedies I have ever used." W. H. Stickler, Terre Haute, Ind., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured my wife of a severe lung affection, supposed to be Quick Consumption. We now regard the Pectoral as a household necessity." E. M. Breckenridge, Brainerd, Minn., writes: "I am subject to Bronchitis, and, wherever I go, am always sure to have a bottle of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

with me. It is without a rival for the cure of bronchial affections."

cisco than is expected. Swift, Rep., will be elected. The American vote, which started out strong, rapidly fell away, and in the interior it fell behind the O'Donnell, Ind., vote.

Washington Territory.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 3.—Terry meager returns are received from the election in Washington territory. In the cities and principal towns about one-fifth of the votes were cast by women. The Republicans are inclined to think Charles S. Voorhees, present incumbent, Dem., is defeated by C. Bradshaw, Rep., by a small majority.

Nebraska.

OMAHA, Nov. 3.—Returns from 5 precincts in the First district show that McChane, Dem., for congress, is running ahead of his ticket.

OMAHA, Nov. 3.—The Republicans carry the state ticket by about 35,000 majority. Laird, Second district, and Dorsey, Third district, are re-elected.

NEW ENGLAND BALLOTS.

A Close Race for Governor in Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The election in this state was for governor and state offices and congressmen. The weather was fine, and the feature of the contest is the closeness of the race for governor. Returns up to 11:30 p. m. indicated the election of Ames, Rep., as governor by from 2,000 to 4,000 plurality. The balance of the Republican state ticket is elected. Boston's vote complete gives Andrew, Dem., 20,546; Ames, Rep., 18,200; Andrew's plurality, 8,346. Two hundred and twenty-eight cities and towns give Ames 70,167, Andrews 68,825.

Following is the result in the congressional districts: First, R. G. Davis, Rep., re-elected; Second, J. D. Long, Rep., re-elected; Third, Leopold Morse, Dem.; Fourth, Gen. Collins, Dem., re-elected; Fifth, E. C. Hayden, Rep., re-elected; Sixth, H. C. Lodge, Rep.; Seventh, Gen. Cogswell, Rep.; Eighth, Charles Allen, Rep., re-elected; Ninth, Edward Burnett, Dem.; Tenth, J. E. Russell, Dem.; Eleventh, William Wheling, Rep., re-elected; summary, Reps., 8; Dems., 4.—Democratic gain of 2. Russell, Morse and Burnett are tariff reformers.

One hundred and fifty-four cities and towns with Lowell's and Boston's lieutenant governor vote missing, give for governor—Ames 65,056; Andrew, 60,158. For lieutenant governor—Brackett, Rep., 40,023; Forster, Dem., 33,578.

Indications in New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 3.—Returns from nearly one-third of the towns in the state show a Republican loss on the popular vote of about 200. Indications are that there is no choice for governor by the people; that McKinney, Dem., has been elected to congress in the First district, and Gallinger, Rep., in the Second, and that the Republicans have carried the legislature.

Eighty-six towns gave for governor: C. H. Sawyer, Rep., 10,437; S. Cogswell, Dem., 10,385; J. Wentworth, Pro., 555, a Democratic gain of 374.

Connecticut.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 3.—From the returns so far received Republicans here figure a gain of eight representatives. Their majority in the house last year was 15. Returns are very slow in coming in. The Connecticut Telephone company furnishes the following: One hundred towns in Connecticut give Cleveland 37,600; Lounsbury, 35,880.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 3.—One hundred and forty-three towns give Lounsbury 50,276; Cleveland, 50,080; Prohibition, 4,005. Labor, 2,006. Legislature: House, Republicans, 123; Democrats, 90; Independents, 2. Senate: Republicans, 14; Democrats, 10. Congressional: Democrats carry the First, Second and Third district; Republicans carry the Third, a Republican loss of one. Twenty towns to hear from.

THE SOUTHERN STATES.

A Democratic Clean Sweep in Maryland.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 3.—The total vote cast in this city Tuesday was 47,227, against 59,938 in 1884. The Democrats carry the city by a plurality of 19,105 and majority of 13,835—a gain of 7,225. In the Third district Harry Welles Rusk (Dem.) is elected to the Fifteenth congress, and to serve the unexpired term of the late Dr. Cole in the Forty-ninth by a majority over two other candidates of 8,288. Isidor Rayner (Dem.) in the Fourth congressional district, is elected over Hon. J. V. L. Findlay (Ind. Dem. and Rep.) the present representative, by a plurality of 7,545, and majority of 4,272. The First district, on the eastern shore, returns Hon. Charles H. Gibson (Dem.) to congress by a majority of about 2,400, and in the Second district Hon. Frank L. Shaw (Dem.) is re-elected by a majority of 2,300. Hon. Barnes Compton (Dem.) is re-elected in the Fifth district by a majority of nearly 2,000. His majority in 1884 was 971. The Sixth district, which has gone Republican for many years is in doubt. The candidates are Hon. Louis E. McComas (Rep.) present member, and Col. Victor L. Baughman (Dem.). McComas majority in 1884 was 1,616. Advances thus far show Republican losses aggregating 700.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 3.—The Republicans claim McComas' election to congress in the Sixth district by from 300 to 400 majority.

Labor Takes a Hand in Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 3.—The election returns are very meager, but up to midnight Tuesday indicated the election of O'Neill, Dem., in the Fifth congressional district by 1,000 majority. The city ticket will be a mixed one. The United Labor party have polled 8,000 to 10,000 votes. Returns indicate the election of Glover, Dem., over Faank, Rep., in the Ninth congressional district by about 200 majority. News from the Tenth district is meager, but the triangular contest between Clardy, Dem.; Ledergerber, Rep. and Ratchford, Labor, will be a close one but if the usual Democratic majority in the country holds good Clardy will be elected. The worst beaten candidate on the city ticket is Joseph Temple, for recorder of deeds whose railway leanings as a city councilman have probably caused the election of William A. Hobbs, a well-known newspaper reporter, to that position by a majority of 3,000. Outside of Temple the Democrats will elect the greater part of their city ticket.

Virginia Surprises the Democrats.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 3.—The result of the election Tuesday is a surprise to Democrats. There was great apathy, and the vote small. In this, the third and metropolitan district

George D. Wise, Democratic incumbent, will receive a majority of about 1,500. In the First district Bayley Brown (Rep.) is elected; in the Second Bowden (Rep.) is elected; in the Fourth Gaines (Rep.) has a tremendous majority; in the Fifth Gilbert, the Democratic incumbent, is badly defeated by Brown (Rep.); in the Sixth Griffin (Dem.) is elected; in the Seventh O'Ferrall, the incumbent Democrat, is elected; in the Eighth W. H. F. Lee is sent in; in the Ninth Bowen (Rep.) beats Henry (Dem.), and in the Tenth the chances are that Yost (Rep.) has been elected over Bumgardner (Dem.). From best advices it is apparent that the Republicans have gained three men, making their representation in congress five instead of two.

Something Unprecedented in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 3.—The indications are that the results of Tuesday's congressional elections in Kentucky are as follows: First district, Oscar Turner or W. J. Stone, both Democrats—no Republican candidate; Second, Polk Laffoon, Dem., re-elected; Third, W. G. Hunter, Rep.; Fourth, B. Montgomery, Dem.; Fifth, A. E. Willson, Rep.; Sixth, J. G. Carlisle, Dem., re-elected; Seventh, W. C. P. Breckenridge, Dem., re-elected; Eighth, James B. McCrearick, Dem., re-elected; Ninth, George M. Thomas, Rep.; Tenth, W. F. Saulbee, Dem., re-elected; Eleventh, H. F. Finley, Rep. The election of A. E. Willson, Republican, is the first time the Fifth (Louisville City) district ever returned a Republican representative.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—Speaker Carlisle's majority for congress in Kentucky will probably not exceed 1,500.

Democrats Have No Opposition in Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 3.—First district, J. S. Jones (Dem.) re-elected without opposition. Second district, H. A. Herbert (Dem.), re-elected without opposition. Third district, W. C. Oates (Dem.), re-elected, no opposition. Fourth, three candidates—Davidson (Dem.), McDuffie (white Rep.), and Turner (colored Rep.). Meager returns indicate the election of Davidson, but it is likely that the seat will be contested by McDuffie. Fifth, James E. Cobb (Dem.), elected; opposition amounted to almost nothing. Sixth, J. H. Bankhead (Dem.), elected over Long (Rep.); but the race is very close, and official returns may change the result. Seventh, W. H. Forney (Dem.), re-elected, opposition practically nothing. Eighth, Wheeler (Dem.), re-elected over Jackson (Rep.), by about 4,000. The election passed off very quietly.

"Bob" Taylor Carries Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 3.—"Bob" Taylor, Dem., is elected governor by from 20,000 to 25,000 majority. There was a light vote through the state, but it showed Democratic gains in all districts, the Democrats gain a congressman. The Republicans elect their legislative ticket in this (Davidson) county. Sufficient returns are now in to insure the election of the following congressmen. The Democrats gain one in the state and reduce Houck's majority nearly 4,000.

First district, R. R. Butler, Rep.; Second, S. C. Houck, Rep.; Third, J. R. Neal, Dem.; Fourth, B. McMillen, Dem.; Fifth, J. D. Richardson, Dem.; Sixth, J. C. Washington, Dem.; Seventh, W. C. Whitthorne, Dem.; Eighth, B. A. Enloe, Dem.; Ninth, F. F. Glass, Dem.; Tenth, J. Phelan, Dem.

West Virginia.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 3.—The entire Republican ticket in Berkeley county is elected. Flick, Rep., for congress, is running ahead of his ticket.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 3.—Snyder, Dem., re-elected to congress by reduced majority.

Despatches from the Second congressional districts all indicate Republican gains. The news from the Fourth district is so meager that no conclusion can be reached. Republicans are claiming large gains, but the Democrats are confident their candidate has been elected. In the First district Goff, Rep., is re-elected to Congress by a largely increased majority. A large vote has been pulled all over the state, and the Republicans have no doubt gained several members.

All One-Sided in South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 3.—The election passed off throughout the state quietly. The vote polled was the lightest cast for a number of years. Total vote of the state estimated not over 50,000. The Democratic state ticket has been elected without opposition. The Democratic majority in the next legislature will be overwhelming. The state senate will stand as follows: Democrats, 30; Republicans, 2. In the house there will be 118 Democrats and six Republicans. The next congressional delegation will be: First district, Sam Dibble (Dem.); Second, George D. Tilman (Dem.); Third, James S. Cottrah (Dem.); Fourth, W. H. Perry (Dem.); Fifth, John J. Hemphill (Dem.); Sixth, George W. Dargan (Dem.); Seventh, William Elliott (Dem.), probably elected.

Congressmen from Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—The election in this city and state so far as known, has passed off quietly and a fair vote has been polled. The following have been elected to congress: Fourth district, N. C. Blanchard, Dem.; Fifth district, Cherubusco Newton, Dem.; Sixth district, E. W. Robertson, Dem.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—The congressional election Tuesday resulted in the return of a solid Democratic delegation from this state. In the First district Wilkinson's majority is about 7,000; in the Second M. D. Lang has a majority of about 1,500; the third district, heretofore largely Republican, elects Gay, Dem., by about 5,000 votes; in the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth districts the Democrats had no opposition.

Results in North Carolina.

SALISBURY, N. C., Nov. 3.—John S. Henderson, Dem., is elected to congress in this district by 1,500 majority.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 3.—The Sixth district elected E. M. Howland, Dem., for Congress.

Meager returns from the Second district, now represented by James E. O'Hara, colored Rep., are favorable to the election of F. M. Simmons, Dem.

Mississippi.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 3.—The election was quiet and a light vote was polled. At some points not one-fourth of the usual vote was polled. The following Democrats were elected to congress without opposition: First district, J. M. Allen; Fourth, F. S. Barry; Fifth, C. L. Anderson; Seventh, C. E. Hooker. In the Third district T. C. Cashing's, Dem., election is considered certain.

Democratic Indications in Texas.

FORTH WORTH, Tex., Nov. 3.—Tarrant county has gone Democratic. Nothing can be told of the majorities. In the Sixth district Abbott, Dem., is elected for congress. Warton, Rep., withdrew.

TYLER, Tex., Nov. 3.—The indications are that this county goes Democratic with the usual majority.

Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 3.—The following congressmen are elected: First district, Thomas M. Norwood, Dem.; Third, Charles F. Crisp, Dem.; Fourth, James D. Stewart, Dem.; Sixth, James H. Blunt, Dem.; Eighth, H. H. Carleton, Dem.; Tenth, George S. Barnes, Dem.

Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 3.—The present congressmen Davidson and Dougherty will be re-elected by majorities ranging from 1,200 to 3,500.

Examining a Dead Man's Accounts.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Nov. 2.—Auditor Curry, of the Nickel Plate railroad, is examining the accounts of the late E. R. Sanborn, agent of the road in this city, who died in Maine a few days ago from an overdose of morphia. Mr. Curry says he can not yet state positively whether there is a shortage, but can say that if any exist, it can not be $40,000 as rumored, and can hardly exceed $4,000 or $5,000. The rumors of a deficit seem to have no other foundation than the manner of Mr. Sanborn's death. Mr. Curry says, in regard to this, that Mr. Sanborn was in the habit of taking opiates to relieve chronic pain.

Two Cases of Miscegenation.

MARSHALL, Ills., Nov. 2.—Marshall is getting to be a veritable Gretna Green for couples of mixed color from Indiana, who can not get married there, owing to the law against miscegenation. Saturday El Fields, a repulsive-looking negro, was married to Mrs. Alice Turrell, a fine-looking white woman. Monday afternoon John Perkins, a negro of 37, was married to Mary Meyers, a white woman of 23. Both couples were from Terre Haute, and not one of the four persons could read nor write.

Killed at a Railway Crossing.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—About 11:30 o'clock a. m. Tuesday, and just before the Midland passenger train, due here at 12:20 o'clock, reached Loveland, it struck a buggy at a road crossing and instantly killed Mrs. Nellie Day, its only occupant. Her head was mashed into a jelly and her body was horribly mutilated. The buggy was smashed into a thousand pieces, but as the engine struck the buggy squarely the horse escaped uninjured.

A Bad Indian in Custody.

CALGARY, N. W. T., Nov. 3.—Superintendent Griesback, in command of the mounted police at Edmonton, has succeeded in capturing "Lone Man," who is supposed to have been implicated in the massacre at Frog lake last year. "Lone Man," relying upon the lapse of time since the rebellion, came into the post with a complaint about stolen horses. He was immediately recognized and arrested.

Scaling a King's Debts.

MUNICH, Nov. 2.—It is announced that the creditors of the late king of Bavaria must accept immediate cash payments with an abatement of from 15 to 20 per cent. on the full amount, spread out in various sums, in four years time.

Yale Wins at Football.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Nov. 3.—The Yale college football team beat the Crescents easily Tuesday by a score of 84 to nothing.

TELEGRAPHIC MELANGE.

RUSSIAN NIHILISM SOMEWHAT DE-PRESSED JUST NOW.

Matters at the Chicago Stock Yards Still Unsettled—Novel Suit by a Medical Man—Another Elopement to Canada—A Matrimonial Report Denied—Assorted Lightning.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The United Press representative at Bern had an interview Monday with a Russian refugee, a savant, who declined to allow his name to be published because he still maintains relations with plotters against the government throughout Russia. The statements which have appeared in the papers of late regarding the condition of Nihilism he declared misleading and inaccurate.

"Nihilism," he said, "is at present depressed, and unity in the direction of effective work is lost. The recent attempts made to remove our enemies were due to isolated workers and not by order of the society. The hardest and cleverest workers and organizers are in Siberia. If anything occurs now Nihilism as an organization is not responsible for the conspiracy."

"I have received advices from St. Petersburg which say that the recent sensation caused by the reported murder of Count Reutern is simply a revival of one of the old tales about the czar. Count Reutern lives, my informant tells me, and M. de Giers is urging the czar to prove this by sending him on a mission to one of the European capitals. The precautions taken to protect the czar, however, have been redoubled, and have now reached a stage that is simply astounding."

AN OMINOUS OUTLOOK

For a Big Strike at the Chicago Stock Yards.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—There is a prospect that the trouble of ten days ago at the stock yards will be renewed. Tuesday morning the Packers' association held a meeting, at which the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the members of the Packers' association will control their own business; that they will protect their property at any and all cost, and that they will run their houses on the ten-hour basis.

It is further resolved that the executive committee be continued in office, with authority to employ any protection deemed necessary.

The Knights' executive committee said that if the packers did not come to terms soon, a general strike would be ordered. The demand is for eight hours' work.

Few Went Home to Vote.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 3.—Fewer of the department clerks went home to vote this year than ever before, and very few of the higher officials are absent from their desks in Washington, while their fellow-citizens all over the country are casting their ballots at the polls. The President went to Buffalo last November to vote for Governor Hill, but there is no governor to be voted for this year in New York state, and the president stays in Washington. Col. Lamont also remains in Washington. The only cabinet ministers absent from Washington are Secretaries Whitney, Bayard, and Endicott, and Postmaster General Vilas. Solicitor General Jenks left here for home Monday. Hardly any of the chief of bureaus in the various departments have gone home.

Racing at Jerome Park.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The racing at Jerome park Tuesday was excellent. First race, sweepstakes for polo ponies, 1/4 mile Wild Tom first, Buckshot second, Splinter third; time, 0:58. Second race, hurdle, 1 1/4 miles; Sam Brown first, Montmore second, Vigilance third; time, 2:58 1/2. Third race, 3/4 mile on the flat; Young Duke first, Craftie second, Adonis third; time, 1:30 1/2. Fourth race, 1 1/4 miles; Ariel first, Royal Arch second, Wave-o'-Light third; time, 2:04 1/2. Fifth race, steeplechase, full course; Will Davis first, Jack second, Wellington third; time, 4:30 1/2. Sixth race, steeplechase, short course; Response first, Pawnee second, Colonna third; time, 3:42 1/2.

Been Looking Over the "Monon."

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Mr. William Dowd, the president of the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago road, and a party of friends who have been making a tour of that road, have returned to the east greatly delighted with the trip, and the improvements made of late. The track and the equipment are now in excellent condition. Most of the track is laid with steel rails. While in the city, Mr. Dowd contracted for sufficient steel rails to replace what iron rails there are at present, before the end of the year. The new branch between Orleans and French Lick Springs was completed Monday, and the first train run over it.

A Curious Injunction Asked For.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Dr. F. B. Mandeville of Newark, has applied to Vice Chancellor for Fleet, of New Jersey, for an injunction to prevent his former assistant, Dr. G. W. Harman, from practicing medicine in Newark, on the ground that he had signed a contract not to do so, and that such practice would injure the plaintiff's business, as Harman's connection with his office had given him possession of valuable professional secrets. Harman, in reply, admitted the contract, but said he was forced to sign it on account of poverty, being in Mandeville's power, and he regards it as illegal. Decision was reserved.

Mr. Preston Has Disappeared.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—A special to The Evening Post from Boston says: "Richard Preston, dealer in worsted goods and tailor's trimmings, doing business at 46 Bedford street, has disappeared. It is learned that for some time past he has been dabbling in stocks and has borrowed sums from persons friends to the amount of $150,000. His principal creditor is Thomas Clegg, of Lawrence, Mass. Preston has been absent for over a week, and it is believed he is now in Canada."

Willing To Be Convinced.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 3.—Assistant Secretary Fairchild has informed the Western Iron Ore association, which protested against the recent decision of the department in the matter of imported iron ore as unjust to domestic interests, that the department will consider any evidence in the shape of affidavits and other authenticated documents which may be submitted. Similar notices have been sent to other persons who are dissatisfied with the ruling.

Not to Marry Lady Lyttleton.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 3.—The report published in a recent dispatch that James Russell Lowell was to marry the dowager Lady Lyttleton is positively and emphatically denied by his friends. They say there is not a particle of foundation for the report.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2. Tuesday being election day all the exchanges throughout the country were closed and no quotations were given.

Music for Catching Fish.

An Italian savant has discovered a new and simple method of catching fish. The bait is a musical one. As we all know, the sense of hearing is extraordinarily developed in fish. It appears that while the slightest noise scatters them in all directions, a musical note, especially that produced by the human voice, attracts them, on hearing it they stop suddenly in their course. Sig. Saretti, discovering this fact, embarked one morning on the lake of Geneva with a party of friends. He possesses a very fine, deep bass voice, and striking up a national song he proved to his astounded companions the truth of his assertions. They were able by means of an aquascope to perceive the eagerness with which the piscine population gathered around the little boat. Casting over the nets they had brought they instantly made a catch as has rarely, if ever, been known on the lake, and they may be said, indeed, to have made another "miraculous draught of fishes."—Gazetta del Popolo.

Sculptor Eart's Perfect Woman.

The remains of Joel T. Hart, the Kentucky sculptor, which were brought from Florence a year ago by Judge Kincaid, on behalf of the state of Kentucky, are still in the receiving vault at Frankfort. They are to be interred with proper ceremonies this fall, the legislature having made an appropriation for this purpose. Hart is beloved as well as admired in Kentucky. His statue of Henry Clay, still Kentucky's favorite son, at Louisville, is a true and "speaking likeness." Hart knew Clay well, and got in his statue even the characteristic wrinkle of his coat. When John Clay first saw this statue of his father he was moved to tears by his likeness.

"Number Work."

Written for THE PUBLIC SCHOOL:

Just how to give numbers to primary pupils is not generally understood by young teachers.

Difficulties present themselves, and the little ones with their "Number Work" are forgotten until they can read the technical definitions and laws so seemingly hatched up for the purpose of choking the average youngster.

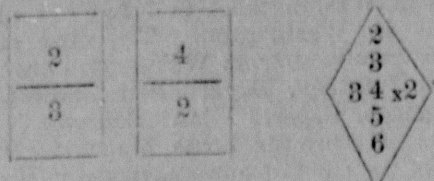

The writer wonders how some do stand the choking process of the multiplication tables as they are rattled off in such a hurry and at one breath. Pupils actually gasp for breath at times. This should not so be; for "Number Work" is the plantlet of Arithmetic, even the same as the little acorn is of the mighty oak. Therefore, a great deal depends on the beginning. With children number is always associated with objects; then it naturally follows that objects, such as blocks, marbles, flowers, toys, spoons, children in class, splints, etc., should be used extensively at first. This work can be made more interesting to the children by using objects which they may select and bring for class use. They take great delight and the parents become interested as well. Keep attractive objects, such as colored splints and paper, penny dolls, etc., for sleepy days. Seek, in every way, to get and keep the attention of the class. When children come in from play they are wide awake and attentive. Then is the time for the "Number Work."

Be wide awake yourself, good teacher, and have some lively questions to secure attention. Questions such as: How many feet have two old hens? How many eyes has a big spider? will do. All depends on the teacher's power of getting the little ones interested. In connection with the twos, teach pints in a quart. Teach 3 feet make one yard, 4 quarts make a gallon, and 4 pecks make a bushel; 5 pennies make a nickel; 7 days make a week, and the table of U. S. money. Have the children do the measuring and counting themselves. The writer has all the measures to illustrate the above outline of work, together with a "bank" of toy money, which he finds very useful. "Playing store" is as interesting as it is useful to the children. As incentives to class work little flags can be used to good advantage for a time. Colored bits of ribbon and paper excite much interest. (The pupil at the foot holding black.) A quiet word of praise has its effect, also, as well as have the "Roll of Honor" and rainbow, which can be made quite pleasing to the children when placed on the board with colored crayons.

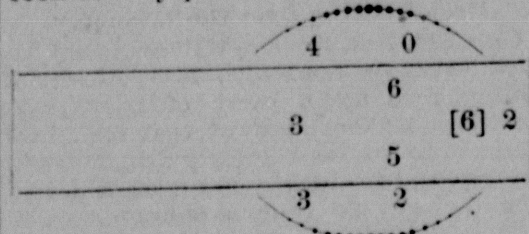

The following are a few suggestions which the writer has found useful:

1. Use THE GUIDE.
2. Be thorough. Review daily.
3. Give practical work, as the average district school life is short.
4. Put yourself on a level with the children. That which seems easy to you is, very often, quite difficult for little children.
5. Go from the known to the unknown.
6. Be as patient as was Job.
7. Guard against concert recitation.
8. In the beginning use and, and less for plus and minus.
9. Teach pupils to make, as well as solve problems.
10. Story your examples, as $2+3+1=6$ might be given: An old hen caught two grasshoppers for one of her little chickens, and three for another chick, and then caught one for herself; how many did she catch in all?
11. Use pictures as well as objects to illustrate easy problems in fractions.
12. Put such forms as the following on the board to be represented by figures:
 $\frac{1}{2} + \frac{1}{2} = 3$ millers.
 $\frac{1}{2} + \frac{1}{2} = 2$ stars.
13. Teach fractional parts of a peck, a bushel, etc.

14. Teach the little ones to tell the time of day.
15. Remember Roman Notation.
16. An abacus should be in the hands of every teacher.
17. Cut figures from large calendars and paste them on cardboard 3x4 inches. Also make other forms as are represented below:

In the next form a shingle should be cut as is represented and numbered. A circular card should then be fastened so that when it is turned the figures can be seen as they pass the hole in the shingle.

This can be used in addition, multiplication, etc., with much interest manifested on the part of the little ones.

18. Write the multiplication tables on card board in the following manner, and then cut off the answers and place the pieces in envelopes for seat work. The children are to arrange the answers in their proper order:

2x2=	4
2x5=	10
2x3=	6
2x1=	2
2x6=	12
2x7=	14
2x9=	18
2x8=	16

Cut where you see heavy, dark lines.

19. Give pupils questions, and require them to find answers at home. Thus interest the parents.
20. Have pupils build the multiplication tables with tooth picks.

Popular Proverbs.

A correspondent of an educational journal requests some of the readers of that paper to give the ten most famous proverbs now in common use among our people. The ten following were given as the most popular in the South:

- The early bird catches the worm.
A bad workman quarrels with his tools.
A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.
A drowning man will catch at a straw.
A fool and his money are soon parted.
While there's life there's hope.
Too many cooks spoil the broth.
Money makes the mare go.
A penny saved is a penny earned.
Time and tide wait for no man.
In addition to those above, the following were given, that are almost as popular.
- A guilty conscience needs no accuser.
All is not gold that glitters.
All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.
Forewarned is forearmed.
A miss is as good as a mile.
Anything for a quiet life.
A small spark makes a great fire.
A stitch in time save nine.
As you shall sow, so you shall reap.
A tree is known by its fruit.
Beggars have no right to be choosers.
Better late than never.
Birds of a feather flock together.
Cut your coat according to your cloth.
Every dog has its day.
Faint heart ne'er won fair lady.
God helps those who help themselves.
It is an ill-wind that blows nobody good.
Every tub on its own bottom.
Man proposes, God disposes.
New brooms sweep clean.
Set a thief to catch a thief.
Take time by the forelock.
There's no fool like an old fool.

I am impressed with the fact that the greatest thing a human soul ever does in this world is to see something, and tell what it saw in a plain way. Hundreds of people can talk for one who can think, but thousands can think for one who can see. To see clearly is poetry, prophecy, and religion,—all in one.—Emerson.

Educational Nuggets.

Only one thing of a kind at a time.
He who knows only by heart, knows nothing.
Man acts as he loves, and he loves as he thinks.
He who has not learned to reflect, has been poorly instructed.
Labor is for the learner; for the teacher, direction of the learners.
Those who sow much and plough little, lose much and reap little.
Let nothing be laid on the top of foundations not yet firmly settled.
Without discipline nothing is learned, or at least nothing rightly.
Understand thoroughly the best methods of teaching—then use your own.
To instruct a child is to construct him within; it is to make him become a man.—Er.

What Shall I Do?

"What shall I do lest life in silence pass?"
And if it do,
And never prompt the way of noisy brass,
What need'st thou rue?
Remember aye the ocean deeps are mute:
The shallows roar;
Worth is the ocean—fame the bruit
Along the shore.

"What shall I do to be forever known?"
Thy duty ever.
"But this full many did who sleep unknown."
Never, no, never.

Think'st thou perchance that they remain unknown
Whom thou know'st not?

By higher trumps of heaven their praise is blown,
Divine their lot.

"What shall I do to gain eternal life?"
Discharge aright
The simple dues with which each day is rife, Yea with might.

Ere perfect scheme of action thou devise
Will life be fled,
While he who ever acts as conscience cries
Shall live, though dead.
—Schiller.

A Sample Examination Paper.

The following sample examination paper is commended to our city and county superintendents. It is given on the authority of the Waterford (N. Y.) Advertiser:

1. How many grains of sand in the great desert? 1 credit.
2. Record the first words of Henry VIII., and the last words of his sixth wife? 1 credit.
3. Who was the chief of the Modocs at the time of the Norman conquest? 1 credit.
4. Who shod the horse on which Sheridan rode to Winchester? 1 credit.
5. Name all the aldermen of New York City from 1492-1900 inclusive? 1 credit.
6. Trace any difference between Geo. Washington and Shem, son of Noah? 1 credit.
7. In the same manner, the similarities between Napoleon and yourself? 1 credit.
8. Who was not the "mother of her country"? 1 credit.
9. If the battle of Waterloo had been fought in England, in what part of the island would it have taken place? 1 credit.
10. Can you give any reason for the supposition that Grant is a descendant from the queen of Sheba? 1 credit.
12. As a test of general intelligence.—Where, when and how, did who do what?—

The art of conversation is one of the most valuable qualifications for the teacher. Children are delighted with one who has the ability to talk with them in a sensible and entertaining manner. It is admitted that the art of conversation can be taught as a branch of the school work, and by the guidance of certain general rules the teacher can exert an influence, by her style and example, that will be of great value to the young in securing for them felicity of expression and ease of manner. Children always listen to a good narrative with delight, and to listen well is almost as desirable as to talk well. Conversation is a mutual matter, and in real life "small talk" is the basis of a large proportion of social intercourse. Talks with children should be varied, natural, free in style, governed always by the rules of good breeding, such as avoiding interruptions, personal insinuations, indelicate allusions, or double meanings, cheap whitticisms, etc. The great secret of a successful talker consists in displaying genius in bringing out the thoughts of others. Children analyze and philosophize with great correctness; and the teacher who talks too much or who aims to show her own superiority will soon lose her power to interest or instruct the young. It requires wisdom to talk well, and sound judgment must be exercised when to keep silence.—American Teacher.

Announcement Extraordinary.

After many years of hard work, old SANTA CLAUS feels compelled to add to his former business of supplying CHRISTMAS GIFTS to make the little ones happy. He finds that people don't keep their chimneys clean as they did in olden times, and what with the Soot, Dirt and Smoke he constantly meets in his frequent excursions up and down the chimneys, he has become as dirty and grimy as a chimney-sweep. This affects his health as well as his looks. He has therefore embarked in the SOAP business. From long years of observation in millions of homes, he knows that few of the Soaps in use are satisfactory, so he has invented a NEW SOAP which beats anything yet seen. He brands it with his own name, viz: SANTA CLAUS and has it made especially for him by Messrs. N. K. FAIRBANK & CO. the Great SOAP-MAKERS of the West. Hereafter he will present a cleaner appearance, and instead of making his visits but once a year, he will come every WASH DAY, and leave something as pleasing to grown folks as his Christmas gifts are to the Children. SANTA CLAUS stipulates that everything must be cleaned and washed with HIS soap.
